BCM is the living legacy of the ideals of a great visionary Swami Dayanand Saraswati, the founder of Arya Samaj. Maharshi's dream was to eradicate ignorance and illiteracy by building institutions offering a modern education based upon the eternal knowledge in the Vedas. So carrying his vision forward, Sh. Bahadur Chand Munjal sowed the seeds of his dream in the hearts of his sons, who took on the responsibility of fulfilling the dream of their father. In 1996, Lala Bahadur Chand Munjal Trust was founded by Hero Group of Industries and BCM School was born out of the profound vision of Munjal Brothers promoting the growth of knowledge and education in modern scientific lines while nurturing our intrinsic ancient values and stimulating individuality and welfare of the individual and the society. Thus, under the aegis of Hero Group consisting of entrepreneurs and philanthropists as its mentors and running many other educational and social institutions, the school that was started from Nursery to class VIII with a strength of merely 297 students soon reached up to thousands and presently is among one of the best Senior Secondary Schools in the city.
