

Campus Connect

Ascent Leadership Workshop Begins at MBCIE

Ludhiana, May 21: Day 1 of the Ascent Leadership Workshop at MBCIE set an empowering tone as educators embarked on a journey of self-discovery and leadership development. The session, themed "Discovering Self & Building Ownership," delved into understanding personality types through the MBTI (Myers-Briggs Type Indicator), and explored the significance of emotional intelligence in effective leadership.

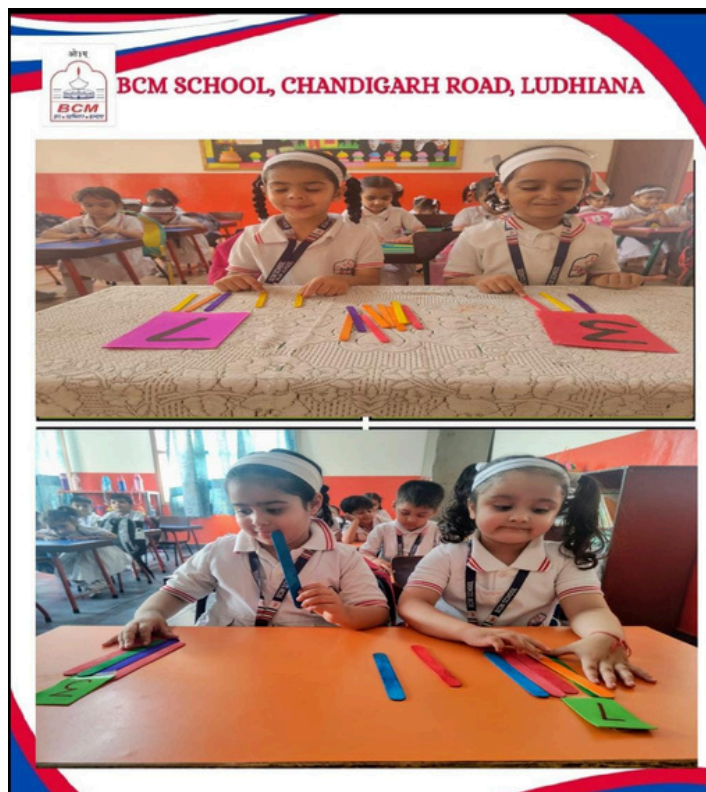

Led by renowned facilitators Dr. Jaya Ahuja and Dr. Richa Mishra, the workshop combined research-driven tools like MBTI, Daniel Goleman's Emotional Intelligence framework, and the Thomas-Kilmann Conflict Mode Instrument (TKI). These sessions encouraged educators to reflect deeply, fostering growth in empathy, self-discipline, and personal ownership.

As the Ascent Leadership Workshop continues, more educators are expected to benefit from its comprehensive and insightful approach to professional and personal development.

Campus Connect

Stick Counts Magic: Hands-On Numeracy Activity for nursery kids

An engaging numeracy activity, "Stick Counts Magic," was conducted at BCM School Chandigarh Road Foundational Stage. Using ice cream sticks, children explored counting and number recognition through hands-on learning. The students enthusiastically arranged, grouped, and counted the sticks, making the activity fun and interactive. This approach enhanced their mathematical skills along with fine motor development, creating a joyful and effective learning experience.

Thought of the Day:

"Success is the sum of small efforts, repeated day in and day out." – Robert Collier

Health Tip of the Day:

Eat the rainbow:

Include colorful fruits and vegetables in your meals—they're packed with essential vitamins and antioxidants.

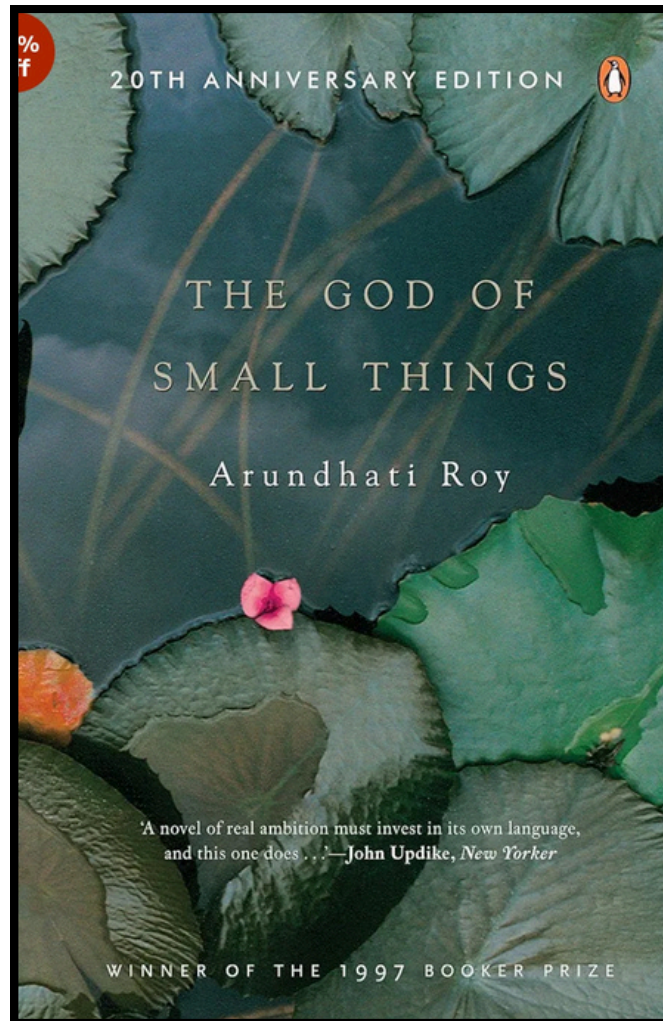

This day in History: May 22

1972 – Ceylon Renamed Sri Lanka

The island nation of Ceylon officially became the Republic of Sri Lanka, adopting a new constitution and changing its name.

Book Recommendation

Booker Prize winner, God of Small Things is a story about two children, Esthappen and Rahel. This was Arundhati Roy's debut novel, in which she throws light on certain facets of life in Kerala, highlighting issues of caste system, Keralite Syrian Christian lifestyle and communism. Esthappen and Rahel at a very young age come to learn about horrifying truth of life, as they are being tortured and blamed for every misfortune. Their less than perfect life gets infected by unexpected events. through the novel begins with Esthappen and Rahel, most of its part holds wider stories of the political events shaping the state, their parents and relatives. The darker undertones in the life of twins get more evident, as secrets, bitterness and lies destroy their world. The heat-aching story of two innocent young children will surely keep you hooked till the end and leave you searching for more.