Nourishing Young Minds Through Sustainability: Shaping Eco-Conscious Leaders of the Future

The 30-minute Zero Period Activity was thoughtfully planned to educate and engage students on sustainable food practices. The session included:

- Screening of two informative videos highlighting the importance of food sustainability and mindful consumption.
- An interactive quiz that assessed students' understanding and encouraged critical thinking.
- Answer keys were provided for self-assessment, allowing students to reflect on their learning.

The primary objective was to raise awareness about how individual food choices impact the environment and health. Students actively participated and showed great enthusiasm.

Follow-up activities like group discussions, research-based project work, and expert guest talks are planned in the coming weeks to deepen understanding and encourage actionable change.

From One Delegate to a World of Opportunities: Global Universities connect under one roof Monash University delegate delivers a session

Ludhiana, July 2025 – BCM School, Chandigarh Road, took a major step in global career readiness through its enriching CareerConnect Month. The initiative began with an engaging session conducted by Ms. Nimika Sharma, representative from Monash University, Australia—a globally renowned research-intensive institution. Addressing Grade XII students from Commerce, Humanities, and Science streams, Ms. Sharma provided insights into Liberal Education, Engineering, and Healthcare pathways, while also explaining scholarship opportunities and strategies for international admissions.

Building on this academic momentum, the school hosted a dynamic University Fair featuring delegates from five top global institutions:

- 🌐 University of San Diego – USA
- 🌐 Monash University – Australia
- 🌐 University of St. Thomas – USA
- 🌐 Wesleyan College – USA
- 🌐 Miami University – USA

The event offered personalized interactions, detailed application advice, and a window into international campus life. Students walked away with greater clarity about their educational futures. This transition from a single-university session to a multi-institution showcase reflects BCM's commitment to providing students with global exposure, strategic guidance, and future-ready opportunities.

Joyful Culmination of Van Mahotsav Week: Children Promote Green Living with Slogans and Saplings

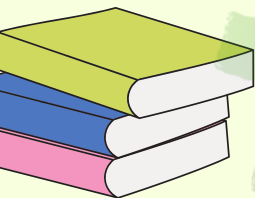

Thought of the day:

"You reap what you bury — plant kindness today, and harvest peace tomorrow."

Health tip of the day:

Start your day with a glass of warm water — it boosts digestion and detoxifies your body.

Book of the day:

The Midnight Library"

By Matt Heig

Because it's a mind-bending yet emotionally touching novel that makes you pause and think about every choice you've made — and every one you didn't.
