STUDENT-MADE DRONE DEMONSTRATED AT SCHOOL GROUND

May 2025 – A live demonstration of a student-developed drone was held on the school grounds this week, marking an inspiring moment of innovation and hands-on learning. The event was spearheaded by Mr. Deepankur, the Tinkering Lab in-charge, who guided the project from its inception to execution.

Students gathered with great enthusiasm to witness the drone's flight and understand its working mechanism. The demonstration not only highlighted the technical capabilities of the young innovators but also showcased the practical application of STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) education in real-world scenarios.

The Friendly Flower: A Lesson in Living Together

The tiny tots of LKG, guided by their teachers, presented a charming dramatization titled 'The Friendly Flower in the Garden' as part of the Value of the Month – Tolerance.

Through expressive storytelling and lively performances, the young learners portrayed how a beautiful flower learns to accept and coexist with all creatures in the garden. The act sent a powerful message of embracing differences with love and respect, leaving the audience with warm smiles and thoughtful hearts.

QUIZ ON INCREDIBLE INDIA SPARKS STUDENT ENTHUSIASM

The Tourism Club organized an engaging quiz competition titled "Explore Incredible India" under the guidance of Ms. Jyoti Khera and Ms. Preeti Seth. Divided into four regional teams – North, South, East, and West – students competed in rounds covering tourist landmarks, geography, climate, and travel facts.

The interactive final round saw audience participation, adding excitement to the event.

Winners:

- 1 First – Team North
- 2 Second – Team South
- 3 Third – Team East and Team West (Tie)

The event celebrated India's tourism diversity and promoted collaborative learning in a fun, spirited way.

Book Recommendation

The corporate masks we wear hide many a secret. The most potent are not the secret financial numbers or confidential strategy documents hidden away in locked drawers or in safes but the simple ones-good filter coffee, generosity and thirty minutes of me-time.

This book offers a selection of fascinating and useful secrets that can help you be far more successful at your workplace. As a bonus, they can make you happier as well. You will find within a range of subjects-whether the best methods of fighting exhaustion, organizing your work desk, the power of listening, why kindness is so important, workplace lessons from Hercule Poirot and what you can learn from the cookies that your colleagues eat.

Harish Bhat wields his pen with his signature insight to delight, inspire, provoke and change the way you see offices forever.

Thought of the Day:

“Don’t wait for opportunity. Create it.”

— George Bernard Shaw

> A reminder that success comes not just from patience, but from proactive effort.

Health Tip of the day:

Add a handful of nuts to your daily diet.

Nuts like almonds, walnuts, and pistachios are packed with healthy fats, protein, and antioxidants. They boost brain function and heart health—just stick to unsalted, raw or roasted varieties.
