‘For last year’s words belong to last year’s language and next year’s words await another voice.’

The positive side of life and time wave their hands while collecting the valuable gems of previous year to rejuvenate the stamina and reliance in one’s abilities. We continue to sail on the voyage of life’s challenges and understanding ourselves in better way.

Dear Parents, everyday life opens a new book in front of us and we write on it with the mighty pen i.e, opportunity with the advent of new year let’s bring newness by taking new resolutions to make our thinking better than yesterday towards our children. Academic year 2016-17 is at the verge of its end and Summative Assesment-2 is approaching near. Let’s resume our duty of good mentors by guiding our children into right direction of great success. Here I would like to suggest few points:

- ❖ As it is said that a healthy mind resides in a healthy body. So two requirements are healthy diet and to reenergize the strength of the body proper sleep is needed.
- ❖ Due to change in weather many children are becoming prey of many diseases. So to increase the immunity of children against extreme weather conditions they must be guided to wear proper winter uniform.
- ❖ Due respect should be given to the individuality of each child irrespective of his strengths and weaknesses.
- ❖ To make the pre- adolescence age more enjoyable we must try to become the best pals as well as mentors of our children.
- ❖ Children are great imitators, so we must give them something good to imitate. We must forbid ourselves from imposing our wishes on our children.

With these recommendations I extend my best wishes and seek the blessings of Supreme Divinity for all of us.

Dear Students, New Year begins with the magnificent, beautiful and wonderful painting in front of you so paint it with full devotion and hard work. Your parents and teachers have placed countless aspiration in you. So the time has come to put in your best efforts in forthcoming exams.

- ❖ Catch the time by its forelocks because from back it is bald. So utilize your precious time properly.
- ❖ Don’t let your bad past ruin your glorious present.
- ❖ Ask questions about your abilities to yourself and give an honest answer of the same.
- ❖ Target to make yourself better than yesterday.
- ❖ Give 100% in raising the standards in academics.
- ❖ Follow the ideals of honesty, compassion, hard work etc. to distinguish the right from wrong.
- ❖ Believe in actions not in false promises.
- ❖ Imbibe the quality of self-discipline in your life.

May Almighty shower His choicest blessings on all of you. I wish you all a very healthy and prosperous year ahead.
