

BCM SCHOOL, CHANDIGARH ROAD

A SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL, AFFILIATED TO CBSE, NEW DELHI

Dear Parents,
Greetings!

“All I have learned, I have learned from books.” - Abraham Lincoln

The academic year 2023-24 is in its last phase and heading towards culmination with conduct of Annual Exams. Throughout the session, our students and teachers have been putting in their best efforts with an aim to not only ensure academic success but also grow in knowledge and wisdom. Now it is time to reap the fruits of their hard work and dedication. This collaborative journey towards reaching another milestone would have been impossible without your consistent support. During this time of exams your role as parents becomes even more significant.

First of all, you need to ensure that your child is not burdened doesn't carry any kind fear or anxiety in his/her mind regarding exams. Exams are merely an opportunity to measure academic progress of our students and also a means to identify areas for improvement. During exams students also learn to stay firm, prudent and resilient – the qualities which will help them emerge as a winner in the face of challenges. Let us create a supportive environment that turns stressful exams into an epiphany of holistic learning and personal growth by following a few tips.

- Take the best care of your child's health since good health is a way to success & happiness.
- Help your child in planning an appropriate schedule of study.
- Don't schedule any unnecessary outings/travels during exam days.
- Offer emotional support to your child so that he/she is not stressed out.

I am confident that with your support our students will come up with flying colors in Annual Exams.

“Intelligence plus character – that is the goal of true education.” - Martin Luther King

My Dear Students,

I would like to assure you that I am always at your back in all your pursuits towards attaining academic success. I also know that upcoming exams must be keeping you up till late night causing stress. No doubt, this period can be challenging and stressful, but I would like to remind you that you have prepared, learned, and grown throughout the academic year and are well-prepared to face the exams with confidence and determination. Exams are not only an integral part of the educational process but also prepare you for the greatest exam called life. I am confident that with meticulous planning, regular studies and guidance of your teachers; you will definitely shine as a brilliant student of BCM School.

I want to share a few tips to help you navigate this exam period successfully:

- Take care of both your physical and mental well-being by taking regular exercise. Get enough sleep, eat nutritious meals and take short breaks to recharge during your study sessions.
- Believe in your abilities and maintain a positive mindset. Focus on what you've learned and how much you've grown throughout the academic year. Don't hesitate to reach out to your teachers.
- Plan your study sessions effectively and allocate time for each subject based on your understanding and proficiency. Avoid last-minute cramming, as it can lead to stress and hinder your performance.

I wish each and every one of you the very best in your exams. You are capable, resilient, and destined for success.

Good Luck and blessings!
