VOICES OF CHANGE: MIDDLE WING OBSERVES HUMAN RIGHTS DAY

The Middle Wing marked Human Rights Day with an informative video presentation followed by a thoughtful discussion on global Human Rights and the Fundamental Rights enshrined in the Indian Constitution.

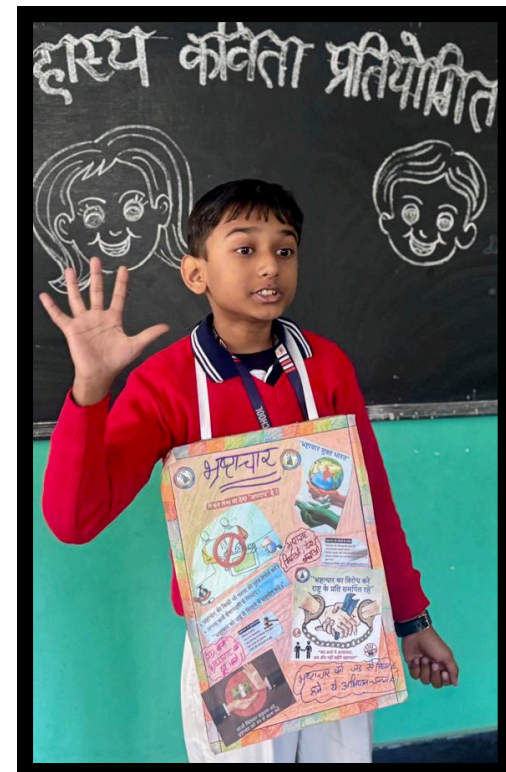

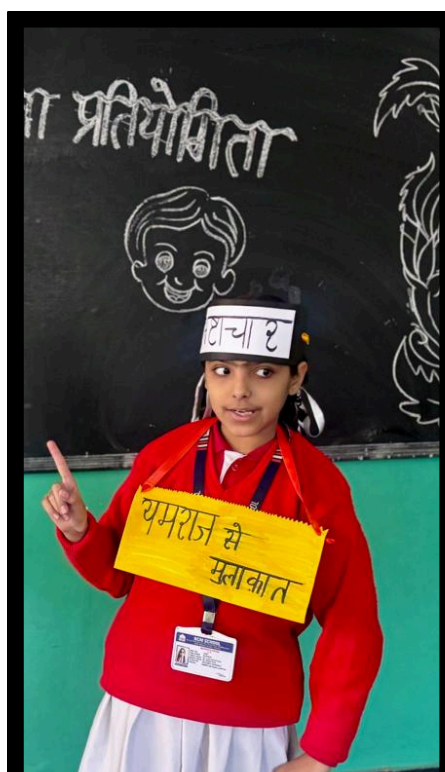

The highlight of the day was a glimpse from the Final Round of the Class VIII Debate Competition on the topic “Technology is killing the habit of reading.” Judged by Ms. Anu, the winners were Geetika (VIII-D) – First, Japjeet (VIII-I) – Second, and Prisha (VIII-J) & Bhavyam (VIII-J) – Third.

Adding a creative voice to the message, Art Club members designed impactful anti-corruption posters, promoting integrity and responsible citizenship. The activities together encouraged awareness, expression, and strong moral values among students.

HUMOUR WITH A MESSAGE: INTER-SECTION HASYA KAVITA COMPETITION MARKS ANTI-CORRUPTION DAY

An Inter-Section Hasya Kavita Competition was organized for Class V students on the theme “Corruption Ka Fashion” to mark Anti-Corruption Day. Students recited humorous yet meaningful poems highlighting the issues of corruption in a light-hearted manner. They used a variety of props and showcased excellent expression, confidence, and creativity. The event successfully spread awareness while keeping the audience entertained.

PRINCIPAL CONDUCTS GUIDING SESSION ON DISCIPLINE, TIME MANAGEMENT AND GROWTH

Students of Class VIII attended an interactive session with the Principal on 10 December 2025. He emphasized the importance of physical, mental and social well-being for staying happy and focused, and encouraged students to develop a positive “Yes, I can do” mindset. The Principal guided students on maintaining neat notebooks, completing assignments responsibly, practising self-study, regular revision and effective time management. He explained the Four As—Awareness, Assessment, Attitude and Acceptance—as key steps towards positive change, along with the PDSA cycle (Plan, Do, Study, Act) to improve daily routines.

The session concluded with words of motivation and best wishes for the upcoming post-midterm examinations, inspiring students to adopt disciplined habits for personal growth.

NURTURING HEALTHY HABITS: AWARENESS SESSION ON PERSONAL HYGIENE AND SANITATION FOR CLASS V GIRLS

A special session on personal hygiene and sanitation was conducted for the girls of Class V. The resource person explained the importance of maintaining cleanliness in daily life and guided students about healthy habits to follow at home and in school.

The girls were also made aware of the physical changes that occur with age, helping them understand their bodies better and preparing them for the growing-up process with confidence. The session was informative, comforting, and aimed at promoting good health and self-care among young students.
