BCM SCHOOL CELEBRATES THE PRAKASH UTSAV OF GURU NANAK DEV JI WITH DEVOTION AND REVERENCE

To mark this sacred occasion, Principal Mr. D.P. Guleria and Headmistress Ms. Ritu Syal, along with the tiny tots of Nursery, LKG, and UKG, visited Gurdwara Shri Guru Singh Sabha, Sector 32-A, Chandigarh Road. The little ones offered prayers, recited the Mool Mantra, and sang melodious shabads with devotion. They also engaged in a creative art activity by colouring the sacred symbol Nishan Sahib, expressing their love and reverence for Sikh tradition.

In the Middle Wing, a series of meaningful activities were organised during the Zero Period to deepen students' understanding of Guru Nanak Dev Ji's life and teachings. Students of Class VI narrated inspiring Sakhis that highlighted the Guru's wisdom and compassion. Classes VII and VIII presented an informative PowerPoint presentation on Nankana Sahib – The Birthplace of Guru Nanak Dev Ji, sharing historical insights and the site's spiritual significance. The soulful Shabad Gayan and a class presentation by VII-I filled the campus with devotion and tranquility.

Across the Primary and Senior Wings, students showcased their devotion through a variety of engaging activities. The Display Board Competitions highlighted messages of equality, selfless service, and truth—core principles of Guru Nanak Dev Ji's teachings. The Shabad Gayan Competition, judged by esteemed alumna Apneet (university topper), was a soulful expression of devotion and artistry. She lauded the participants for their heartfelt performances and disciplined participation.

Principal Mr. D.P. Guleria and Vice Principal Ms. Manju Bhatti appreciated the efforts of teachers and students for making the celebration both spiritually uplifting and educationally enriching.
