CELEBRATING PUNJAB DAY WITH GRANDEUR AND PRIDE

BCM School celebrated Punjab Day with great zeal and enthusiasm, reflecting the vibrant spirit and glorious heritage of the state. The celebrations beautifully showcased Punjab's culture, traditions, and values through a blend of performances, learning activities, and engaging interactions.

The highlight of the day was a special assembly presented by the students of Class XD, who brought the essence of Punjab alive on stage. The event featured a stunning modeling show depicting traditional Punjabi attire, a high-energy folk dance performance, and a soulful Punjabi song that resonated with the audience. A thought-provoking skit conveyed the importance of bravery, unity, and pride in one's culture, leaving a lasting impression on everyone present.

Simultaneously, to mark the occasion, a Quiz on the Knowledge of Punjab was organized for the students of the Middle Wing during the Zero Period. The quiz aimed to deepen students' understanding of Punjab's history, culture, and traditions. Teachers also shared valuable insights about the state's heritage, renowned personalities, and contributions in various fields, enriching the students' learning experience.

BCM FOUNDATIONAL STAGE CELEBRATES GURU PURAB WITH DEVOTION AND CREATIVITY

On Saturday, 1st November 2025, the Foundational Stage of BCM School, Chandigarh Road, celebrated the auspicious occasion of Guru Purab with deep devotion and artistic enthusiasm as part of the Bagless Day activities.

The day began with a serene visit to Gurudwara Sahib, Sec 32-A, where the young learners offered prayers and participated in the recitation of the Mool Mantra Path and Shabad Kirtan. The atmosphere was filled with peace and reverence as the children sought divine blessings and absorbed the timeless teachings of faith, humility, and compassion.

Adding a creative touch to the celebration, a Clay Modelling Activity was organized for all levels. Nursery and LKG students joyfully shaped beautiful flowers, while UKG learners molded vibrant suns and ducks using colourful clay.

The session not only nurtured their imagination but also enhanced their fine motor skills.

The celebration beautifully blended spirituality with creativity, making it a truly enlightening and joyous experience for the young learners.
