FOUNDATIONAL STAGE OBSERVES NATIONAL PUBLIC TRANSPORT DAY AND WORLD SCIENCE DAY WITH GREAT ZEAL

The students of BCM Foundational Stage enthusiastically celebrated National Public Transport Day and World Science Day, participating in a range of engaging and educational activities that fostered awareness, curiosity, and experiential learning.

To mark National Public Transport Day, observed on November 10, children took part in an exciting activity promoting the use of sustainable transport and road safety. Students brought their toy vehicles such as scooters, cars, and motorcycles to school. Teachers made the session more interactive by explaining the importance of traffic rules, zebra crossings, and traffic lights through live demonstrations.
