FOUNDATIONAL STAGE CONDUCTS “IN, ON AND UNDER” CONCEPT ACTIVITY (UKG)

Foundational Stage, conducted a joyful and interactive learning activity for UKG students to strengthen their understanding of the positional concepts “in,” “on,” and “under.” The activity was thoughtfully designed to promote experiential learning through hands-on engagement.

During the session, teachers used a variety of everyday classroom objects and learning aids to demonstrate each concept. Students enthusiastically participated by placing objects in boxes, on tables, and under chairs, while simultaneously verbalizing their actions. This practical approach helped learners clearly differentiate between the concepts and apply them confidently.

The activity not only enhanced students’ spatial awareness and vocabulary development but also encouraged active participation, observation skills, and coordination. Learning through play created an enjoyable classroom environment where students remained curious, attentive, and eager to explore.

Such interactive initiatives at the Foundational Stage reflect BCM School’s commitment to nurturing strong conceptual understanding, joyful learning, and holistic development from an early age. 🌟
