A STUDENT OF BCM SCHOOL WINS HONOURABLE MENTION AT SYS-MUN 2025, HINDU COLLEGE, DELHI UNIVERSITY

Ludhiana, April 16, 2025 – Disha Dhanuka, a student of Class XII Humanities-A at BCM School, Sector 32, Ludhiana, brought laurels to the school by winning the Honourable Mention I award at National level SYS-MUN 2025, held at Hindu College, University of Delhi on April 12, 2025.

She represented Germany in the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women (UNCSW) committee, where the agenda focused on Deliberation upon women's reproductive rights and bodily autonomy. Her articulate speeches, in-depth research, and diplomatic approach stood out in a committee filled with experienced participants from across the country.

The award was presented by Shri Anurag Thakur, Honourable Member of Parliament and former Union Minister, who graced the event as the Chief Guest.

Disha expressed her gratitude to her mentors and school for their unwavering support and said the experience has deepened her interest in international relations, social issues, and public speaking.

About Model United Nations (MUNs):

Model United Nations, commonly known as MUN, is an educational simulation where students take on the roles of delegates representing different countries in various UN committees. Participants debate pressing global issues, draft resolutions, and practice diplomacy, research, public speaking, and negotiation skills. MUNs aim to foster awareness of international affairs and develop leadership qualities in students, making them more confident, informed, and solution-oriented global citizens.

BOOK OF THE DAY

The Picture of Dorian Gray by Oscar Wilde

PENGUIN CLASSICS

OSCAR WILDE
The Picture of Dorian Gray

What if your face never aged, but your soul did?

Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray is a dark and dazzling tale that explores beauty, morality, and the cost of eternal youth. Dorian, a charming young man, wishes his portrait would age instead of him—and gets his wish. But as he dives deeper into a life of pleasure and vanity, the painting reveals the horrifying consequences of his actions.

This novel is not just a gothic classic—it's a mirror to human nature. Wilde's wit, layered characters, and haunting themes make it a must-read for lovers of literature, psychology, and the mysterious.

If you're looking for a book that's beautiful, eerie, and thought-provoking all at once, The Picture of Dorian Gray is your perfect pick for the day.

TANGLED MOON

There's something hauntingly beautiful about this moment—a half-hidden moon peeking through the bare, winding branches of a tree against the soft blue of an early evening sky. The scene is still, yet alive. Silent, yet full of stories.

Each branch looks like a delicate sketch, drawn by nature's own hand—twisted, raw, and real. The power lines slicing across the frame add a modern touch to an otherwise timeless picture, as if reminding us that even amidst concrete lives and busy days, there's always room to look up and wonder.

This picture captures more than just a moon behind trees—it captures a feeling. The quiet reflection of a day ending. The calm after the chaos.
