LITTLE VOICES, BIG LESSONS: UKG STUDENTS SHINE IN STORYTELLING COMPETITION

The Foundational Stage organised a vibrant Storytelling Competition for UKG students, aimed at nurturing imagination, communication skills, and moral values among young learners.

The tiny storytellers captivated the audience with confidence as they narrated engaging tales such as “Time Is Precious,” “Value of Zero,” “The Ant and the Elephant,” and “The Mountain Man,” among many others. Each story carried meaningful life lessons, leaving the listeners inspired and delighted.

Adding charm to their performances, the participants used colourful and creative props, which truly acted as the icing on the cake. Their expressive gestures, clear voice modulation, and infectious enthusiasm reflected thorough preparation and growing stage confidence.

The competition provided a joyful and encouraging platform for students to enhance their speaking skills while imbibing values in an engaging manner. The event concluded on a cheerful note, celebrating creativity, confidence, and the timeless joy of storytelling.

FOUNDATIONAL STAGE SPARKS YOUNG MINDS WITH "HIDDEN WORDS HUNT" ACTIVITY

To sharpen vocabulary and observation skills, Foundational Stage organized a lively "Hidden Words Hunt" activity for UKG students. The young learners eagerly searched for words cleverly hidden in puzzles, boosting focus, concentration, and early literacy. The activity encouraged teamwork, curiosity, and problem-solving, as children cheered each other on while discovering hidden words.

5 STUDY TIPS THAT WORK FOR EVERYONE

01 START WITH THE BASICS
 Make sure you understand the material before moving on to more difficult concepts.
02 REPEAT AND PRACTICE
 Repetition will help embed the material in your memory.
03 ORGANIZE YOUR THOUGHTS
 Outlining or taking notes on the material can help you better understand and remember it.
04 STUDY WITH OTHERS
 Quiz each other or discuss concepts together to solidify your understanding.
05 TAKE PRACTICE EXAMS
 This will give you a sense of how a real exam looks and how much you know.
