ANOTHER INSPIRING SESSION IN THE LIFE SKILLS SERIES BY PRINCIPAL SIR

A special session was conducted by Principal Sir, Mr. D. P. Guleria, for the students. He spoke about the importance of developing civic sense and maintaining both physical and mental health for true happiness in life.

Principal Sir emphasized that happiness is not found in material possessions but in good habits, a disciplined lifestyle, and positive thinking. He encouraged students to maintain a daily routine, eat balanced food, avoid junk and sugary items, and stay physically active through regular exercise.

Sir also inspired students to cultivate right thoughts, stay polite in conversations, and contribute to a clean and healthy environment. He reminded them that books are our best companions and that good health and good manners together form the foundation of a happy and successful life.

“SPEAK WITH RESPECT, LISTEN WITH EMPATHY.”

A CBSE counseling activity on “Communication Styles and Conflict Resolution Strategies” was conducted during the Zero Period for Middle Wing students (Classes VI–VIII). The activity was held as classroom discussions using case studies to help students understand how to handle conflicts effectively.

Students identified what went wrong in each situation and suggested better ways to respond. The discussions highlighted the importance of empathy, cooperation, and respectful communication. The activity helped students reflect on their behavior and learn positive ways to resolve conflicts in daily life.

BCM FOUNDATIONAL STAGE CONDUCTS “LITTLE HEROES LEARN ABOUT OUR EVERYDAY HELPERS!

BCM Foundational Stage organised an interactive activity on the theme “Our Helpers” for the students of LKG. The activity aimed to make the children aware of the importance of community helpers and their valuable contribution to our daily lives. To make learning more engaging, various props such as a stethoscope, broom, letter bag, and toy tools were used. The little learners enthusiastically participated, identified different helpers, and confidently shared how they help us in different ways. The use of props made the session lively and realistic, helping children connect easily with the concept. The activity not only made learning enjoyable but also instilled a sense of gratitude and respect towards community helpers.

STUDENTS OF XI NON-MEDICAL B INSPIRE ALL WITH ASSEMBLY ON “PRINCIPLES TO PREFERENCES”

The Class XI Non-Medical B conducted its morning assembly on 7th November 2025 in the school auditorium on the theme “Principles to Preferences.” The programme began with the morning prayer, followed by a series of creative presentations. The anchors smoothly conducted the event, linking each segment effectively.

The assembly featured an inspiring TED Talk, a lively panel discussion, a meaningful roleplay, a qawwali, and a dance performance. These elements added variety and depth to the event, conveying the message that our choices should always reflect our principles. The students were guided by Class incharge.
